Safeguarding is everyone's responsibility

Date	September 2023
Review Date	September 2024

1. Introduction

- 1.1. In its Vision statement the Richmond and Wandsworth Safeguarding Adults Board (RWSAB) commit to the fundamental principle that all citizens of Richmond and Wandsworth Boroughs (irrespective of age, race, gender, culture, religion, physical or mental ill health; disability or sexual orientation) have a fundamental right to live an independent life free from harm and abuse. All agencies will work together and commit to ensuring that Safeguarding is Everybody's Business. This will be done by:
 - Raising awareness about abuse.
 - Preventing abuse from happening wherever possible.
 - Reporting and responding to concerns and incidents of harm and abuse.
 - Sharing information and intelligence to reduce and remove risk.
 - Share and utilise learning from safeguarding enquiries and reviews to develop practice and preventive strategies.
 - Embed a "Making Safeguarding Personal" approach across the partnership which ensures people are involved and in control of all safeguarding activities.
- 1.2. The Richmond Community Forum is one of the structures through which the Board delivers its vision.

2. Purpose of the Richmond Community Forum

- 2.1. To act, with delegated responsibility, on behalf of the RWSAB to deliver key communication and engagement activity to enable to SAB to achieve its strategic objectives and activities as outlined in its business plan.

3. Functions of the Richmond Community Forum

- 3.1. The key objectives of the Forum are:
 - To promote public awareness of adult safeguarding.
 - To agree key communication messages to the public as necessary.
 - To develop a mechanism for residents' voices to impact on the work of RWSAB.
 - To discuss and agree actions necessary to address any local safeguarding issues raised by members of the Forum or through the quarterly review of the performance data.
 - To provide feedback from communities and support each-other's safeguarding activities where possible.
- 3.2. The Forum will ensure that the wider RWSAB membership is engaged in the work of the Board through the regular newsletter.

4. Links to other Sub-groups

- 4.1. The Richmond Community Forum will link to other RWSAB Sub-groups where they have an important role to play in matters such as:

- Sharing and distributing learning from Safeguarding Adult Reviews – linking with Safeguarding Adults Review (SAR) Sub-group on publication of SARs and dissemination of learnings.
- Linking with the Quality and Improvement Sub-group to determine trends and issues which require communication to the wider community.
- Ensuring all multi-agency policies and procedures are available on the website and that they are kept up to date.
